Project S.A.R.A.H. Annual Breakfast

Where: Congregation Bnai Yeshurun, Teaneck , NJ.

Project S.A.R.A.H. is the domestic violence prevention agency which is dedicated to meeting the needs of Jewish orthodox women who have been abused and to educating the jewish community about the needs of these women. S.A.R.A.H. conducts workshops for rabbis and mikvah attendants as well as teen dating programs in jewish day schools. This year they will be expanding into the area of child abuse awareness. Bergen county section has been part of this consortium for many years. The annual breakfast will honor Charlotte Bennett Schoen, who is a member of our section, as volunteer of the year. Admission is by donation to S.A.R.A.H.
