COMING EVENTS

NOVEMBER GENERAL MEETING LGBT EQUALITY: OUR WORK HAS JUST BEGUN

Every November NCJW BCS conducts a community-wide advocacy forum. The year's program will be "LGBT Equality: Our Work Has Just Begun." This meeting will take place on WEDNESDAY, November 9. Our distinguished presenters will discuss the gains made to protect LGBT individuals and what the community can do to help end discrimination and promote equal rights for LGBT individuals.

Steven Goldstein will deliver the keynote address. Goldstein, Executive Director of the Anne Frank Center for Mutual Respect, achieved national renown as the leader of Garden State Equality. From the time he founded the organization in 2004, it amassed 150,000 members and won a record-breaking 216 new civil rights laws at every level in the state. In 2013, Goldstein became an associate professor of law and political science at Rutgers University in Newark. He has been a television producer, a senior staff member in both houses of Congress, a lawyer for the U.S. House Judiciary Committee, and communications director for the late U.S. Senator Frank Lautenberg.

State Senate Majority Leader Loretta Weinberg will serve as moderator. She was elected to the NJ State Senate in November 2005 after serving in the Assembly for 14 years. Senator Weinberg is vice-chair of the Legislative Oversight Committee, the Joint Committee on Economic Justice and Equal Employment, and has been appointed to an ad hoc committee to review domestic violence and the New Jersey court system. She also sits on numerous statewide commissions and has been at the forefront of LGBT advancement and anti-discrimination throughout her career.

Assemblyman Tim Eustace, panel member, served as Mayor of Maywood (2008-12) and currently represents District 38. He was the first openly gay person elected to the NJ legislature as a non-incumbent; he is co-chair of the NJ Legislative LGBT Caucus and vice-chair of the Health and Senior Services Committee.

Jane Clementi, panel member, is a registered nurse and mother of Tyler Clementi. She is the founder and a board member of the Tyler Clementi Foundation who works to end bullying in schools, workplaces, and faith communities and speaks in support of LGBT rights and the need for families and communities to embrace their LGBT populations.

Hetty Rosenstein, panel member, is the NJ State Director of the Communications Workers of America, the largest union representing state workers. Rosenstein represents more than 70,000 working families, including more than 40,000 state workers, 15,000 county and local workers, and thousands of workers in the telecommunications and direct-care industries. She is a strong and vocal advocate for employee rights and LGBT rights and equality.

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 3—SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 6: TEANECK INTERNATIONAL FILM FESTIVAL

Activism: Making Change remains the theme of the festival that has put Teaneck on the map. The four days will include independent features, documentaries, and shorts that inspire discussion, debate, and the desire to do something to make a difference. Saturday night's Centerpiece Event, at Temple Emeth, will include the feature film Sold, about human trafficking. It is sponsored by Wise Older Women (WOW), which is honoring NJ Assemblywoman Valerie Huttle (an NCJW life member), who will participate in a talkback.

This year NCJW BCS has joined TIFF as a partner and, with State Senator Loretta Weinberg (an NCJW life member), will sponsor an important film: Robert Greenwald's new documentary, Making a Killing: Guns, Greed, & the NRA. Senator Weinberg will participate in a panel discussion following the screening. The film will be shown on Sunday, November 6.

Visit the TIFF website, www.teaneckfilmfestival.org, or call 201-203-1723, for the venue and time of this film as well as the others being shown. Ticket sales begin in October, online and at Teaneck Cinemas: opening night (Thurs, Nov. 3), $10; weekend passes (Fri – Sun), $35; single tickets, $8 and $10 at the door; online, $8 + service charge. Saturday night Centerpiece Event, including refreshments and panel discussion, $25 (tax deductible), $35 at the door.

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 22: FRAIDY REISS: UNCHAINED AT LAST

Did you know that child marriages are legal in the United States and that thousands of children as young as twelve have been wed? Speaker for our second study group, Fraidy Reiss, has experienced this situation first hand. When she was only nineteen, her family arranged for her to marry a man who turned out to be extremely violent. With no education or job and living in an insular religious community where only men have the right to grant a divorce, Fraidy felt totally trapped.

Her story is one of personal survival. She has gone on to establish and lead a nonprofit organization, Unchained at Last, a group dedicated to helping women leave or avoid arranged or forced marriages and rebuild their lives. Come hear Fraidy tell her story and how she now helps others.

Mark your calendars for Tuesday, November 22 at 1:00 pm at the Riverside Mall Conference Center. Cost: $5 members, $10 nonmembers. Refreshments will be served. For more information, contact Marilynn Friedman at 201-568-0145 or marisfried@aol.com.

Thursday November 3: A Tour Bus Goes to Brooklyn

On Thursday, November 3, we will travel to Brooklyn which would rank as the third most populous city in the U.S. if each of the five boroughs were a separate city. Tour Guide Art Zuckerman will treat us to a creative itinerary, filled with history and anecdotes. We will tour Brooklyn Heights, DUMBO, Crown Heights, Prospect Park, and Park Slope, among other areas. There will be stops at BLDG 92 Museum, at the Brooklyn Navy Yard, and at the Pratt Institute sculpture garden. We will lunch at the famous Junior's, known for its cheesecake, where you will have a choice of items listed below.

The bus leaves Temple Emeth at 8:30 am, returns by 6 pm. Registration by mail only, confirmed by email: $75 members, $85 nonmembers (if space available). Make check payable to NCJW BCS, mail to Ina Fine, 160 Overlook Avenue, #18E, Hackensack, NJ 07601. For more information, contact Ina at gilandina@aol.com or 201-343-2094.

FROM THE PRESIDIUM

In October we celebrate the Jewish New Year; we rejoice and pause to listen to the sounds of the shofar calling us to judgment. As we reflect on our accomplishments during the past year, we can be very proud of our Section. We have more than 50 new members, our Thrift Shop and your personal giving donations are providing the funds we need to assist our 18 community services and to enable us to offer informative, educational and timely programs.

L-R: Fran, Bea, Marcia, and Elaine

But there is still so much that needs to be done. The spirit of tikun olam inspires us to find more ways to alleviate the suffering and hunger for all. We look to the coming Jewish year of 5777 to continue to work to make our community better for everyone. In the coming months we will have the opportunity to prepare "snack packs" for the children in need in our local schools, to learn about the LGBT community at our November forum (look for special article in this issue), and to advocate on the issues of gun violence, women's rights, and more. Our upcoming study groups, trips, luncheons, and fundraisers will also provide us with the opportunity to learn something new and to socialize.

Now is the time to ask yourself: did I pay my dues for this year? Do I have 2- 3 hours to volunteer at one of our community services? Can I help plan a program or event? Have I sent in my Stay-at-Home personal giving donation? What can I do to help make this a better year? This bulletin is filled with many exciting, upcoming events; read the articles and plan to join us.

Of course also remember to vote on November 8. This is your chance to determine the leaders for our country and community for the coming years. Every vote counts!

We look forward to a year filled with wonderful programs, with increased participation and support from YOU, our members. We are committed to working toward a year filled with inspiring programs and exciting events.

Our best wishes to everyone for a sweet, healthy, and good New Year.

L'Shanah Tovah,
Bea, Elaine, Fran and Marcia

STAY-AT-HOME PERSONAL GIVING CAMPAIGN

Have you responded to our beautiful Stay-At-Home Ball invitation yet? We know you care deeply about NCJW Bergen County Section and what it does to improve the lives of children, women, and families in our area. You also realize that all our efforts would have to be abandoned if you and your fellow members did not financially support them.

We hope you will take a minute to be as generous as possible so that we can continue to focus on the terrible problems of young girls and women caught in the throes of human trafficking, innocent children and families killed by unrestricted gun laws, and women unable to receive the health care they need because politicians have closed available resources. So don't bother getting all dressed up in too-tight dresses and shoes that hurt. Stay at home and write a check to NCJW today! The women and children served by our eighteen local community services will surely thank you.

COMMUNITY SERVICES

SWIM-IN VOLUNTEERS & SWIMMERS ENJOY A PIZZA PARTY

Once again members of the Swim-In Program, an NCJW BCS community service for people with multiple sclerosis, met to spend a festive end-of-summer afternoon at Tenafly Pizza. Hugs and smiles were abundant as dedicated volunteers and "swimmers" (individuals with multiple sclerosis) reunited to socialize, catch up with their friends, and enjoy a wonderful Italian meal.

Since 1976, NCJW BCS, in collaboration with the National MS Society NJ Metro Chapter, has provided a once-a-week water program where people with MS have an opportunity for therapeutic exercise. The social and exercise aspects of this unique community service are rewarding to swimmers and volunteers alike. We were all happy when Swim-In resumed on September 14 at the Tenafly JCC.

Interested in volunteering? Email Ina Miller-Silverstein at inams98@yahoo.com or 201-836-6562 or Roxanne Reff at rkreff@yahoo.com or 2010-944-7581.

YCS HOLLEY BARBEQUE

National Council of Jewish Women Bergen County Section volunteers serve and share a late summer barbeque with the kids at the Holley Center. There were 12 volunteers and 65 kids and staff who enjoyed hot dogs, hamburgers, salads, and a great big beautiful cake for dessert.

MAKE WISHES COME TRUE: HOLIDAY GIFTS

At holiday time Bergen County Section collects small gifts and gift cards for the children and families served by our community services and coalition partners, including Center for Hope and Safety, Bergen Family Center, Youth Consultation Service, and Jewish Family Services. Some of our members enjoy fulfilling the wish list for an entire family, while others prefer giving individual gifts. The gifts can range from Target gift certificates ($10 each for the children of Holley and Kilbarchan) to toys and clothing. HIPPY requests unwrapped gifts suitable for preschoolers. Bring your gifts to Game Day on November 17 or to our Open Board meeting on December 13, or give them to a friend on the board.

For more information, contact Henrietta Wolfeiler, b.wolfeiler3@verizon.net 201-996-0932 or Evalyn Brownstein,teaneckeab@gmail.com 201-836-9444.

Attn: Karen Kurland

Dear Karen & Members of NCJW Bergen County Section:

Thank you for the wonderful donation of clothing from the NCJW Thrift Shop for the two children from the YCS Therapeutic Nursery. It is really no exaggeration when we say that we can always count on the members of NCJW Bergen County Section to help the children of YCS!

We deeply appreciate your generosity and care for the children we serve. Your long history of support for these children who have suffered trauma and been removed from "at-risk" situations is truly heartwarming.

While YCS provides clinical care, it is people like you who truly make the difference by making them feel special. Thank you for sharing your compassion with our children. Together, we can truly change the lives of the children of YCS.

Sincerely,

Frances Spiegel

AWARDS

ELLIE LUBIN HONORED

NCJW BCS Honorary President Ellie Lubin was chosen to receive the annual Celia Weisman Award by the Human Services Advisory Council. Ellie was presented with this prestigious award at HSAC's annual meeting on September 29 for her life of service to the community after being nominated by Women's Rights Information Center on whose board she has served for many years. Ellie, we're so proud of you!

SIGN UP FOR NCJW ACTION CENTER

Add your voice to ours and to thousands of others. Speak out to save fundamental rights and freedoms by signing up for NCJW's Action Center at <http://action.ncjw.org/signup>.

In addition, to receive NCJW's excellent "Washington Week" emails, sign up for Google Group "NCJWAction" by sending an email to ncjwaction@googlegroups.com.

And be sure to check out www.ncjw.org, which has tools and resources to help you stand up, speak out, and make a difference; it's the web address for action!

MISSION STATEMENT

The National Council of Jewish Women (NCJW) is a grassroots organization of volunteers and advocates who turn progressive ideals into action. Inspired by Jewish values, NCJW strives for social justice by improving the quality of life for women, children, and families, and by safeguarding individual rights and freedoms.

JUDICIAL NOMINATIONS CAMPAIGN – ACTION NEEDED

The federal courts determine how justice is delivered and affect nearly every aspect of our lives. There are now an unprecedented number of federal vacancies in addition to the vacant Supreme Court seat. Our federal courts do not have enough judges to hear all the pending cases.

There are three federal judiciary vacancies in New Jersey; one of these is designated a "judicial emergency." There are two empty seats on the New Jersey District Court and two on the U.S. Court of Appeals for the 3rd Circuit, which includes New Jersey, Delaware, and Pennsylvania.

This is a great opportunity to contact our senators. Urge them to hold hearings and votes on pending judicial nominees and inquire about the status of identifying nominees for the remaining vacancies. Tell our senators that justice delayed is justice denied!

ADVOCACY/ EDUCATION - A PRIMER

This is what we do in Advocacy/Education: We study, we research and then we educate our members and the community so that they can be well-informed and thus able to advocate on issues that affect women and children and families. We raise our voices individually and as a group for issues that affect the most vulnerable. We write letters to the editor and to our legislators, we sign petitions, we fax, we email, we phone, we lobby our legislators, we post on social media. We urge our members and our community leaders to advocate our legislators for the important issues.

In good conscience, we can never be a one-issue organization. There are so many compelling issues that are worthy of our attention and need our voice. Can we say that gun violence is less important than the immigration issue? And are we able to ignore human trafficking when so many runaway and homeless young people are vulnerable to labor and sex trafficking?

Should we not demand that our senators fulfill their constitutional responsibility and act on nominee Merrick

Garland? And how do we overlook the fact that most states do not have laws protecting the LGBT community from discriminatory practices? How can we not acknowledge those suffering from homelessness and hunger? How can we not react vehemently to the cuts made in child nutrition programs for families who rely on government help to feed their children; do we not beg, no – demand – our legislators to pass social justice bills to provide for these children? How can we NOT take notice of what is happening in many states in our country to restrict a woman's right to an abortion?

We urge you to act on Bergen County Section's action alerts as well as those from National. This is what Advocacy/Education is all about. Whenever the need arises, we advocate for any (and frequently all) of these issues.

Bea Podorefsky

Presidium member, Advocacy/Education
