COMING EVENTS

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 16 RIKKI KLIEMAN TO SPEAK AT GENERAL MEETING

Television anchor, legal analyst, trial attorney, actor, and best-selling author, Rikki Klieman has earned a reputation as one of the nation's most celebrated lawyers and legal authorities. Rikki is now a contributor/legal analyst for "CBS This Morning." She was an anchor on the Courtroom Television Network from 1994 to 2010 and a contributor on the CBS Early Show and the NBC Today Show, as well as the E! Network. She has appeared on NBC's Nightly News, ABC, CNN, CNBC, and MSNBC. Her autobiography, Fairy Tales Can Come True – How a Driven Woman Changed Her Destiny, reached the L.A. Times Best Seller List. She received her J.D. from Boston University School of Law.

Rikki was named by Time Magazine as one of the top five women trial lawyers in the country. She has been interviewed on countless radio and television programs, including, among others, "60 minutes" and "20/20." She has written for LA Confidential Magazine and other publications and currently writes for The Daily Beast. Her acting career includes roles in TV series such as "Blue Bloods," "Las Vegas," "Shark," and "Boston Legal," as well as in the movies "The Cable Guy" and "An American Tragedy" (based on the OJ Simpson case).

From raising funds for City of Hope to her work for City Meals on Wheels, she has been committed to helping those most often in need – children, families, and the elderly. A great joy has been working as a mentor at Northwestern University and at Court TV and serving on the Board of Directors at a women's halfway house for those recovering from substance abuse. She has also served on the Executive Board of the ADL (Anti-Defamation League). In Los Angeles, she served on the Board of the Rape Treatment Center. She has been the recipient of numerous awards for public service.

Rikki now lives in New York City with her husband William Bratton, currently New York City's Police Commissioner, where she serves on the Board of Directors of the Women's Forum and the Police Athletic League.

Arrangements for the appearance of Rikki Klieman made through The Fischer Ross Group, Inc.

TRIP TO GOMEZ MILL HOUSE AND THE UNITED STATES MILITARY ACADEMY AT WEST POINT – THURSDAY, OCTOBER 30, 2014

Visits to these two sites will give us an opportunity to experience the sweep of American history and its impact on the early Jewish settlers.

Gomez Mill House, in Newburgh, New York, is the earliest known surviving Jewish residence in the United States. It was built in 1714 by Luis Moses Gomez, a Sephardic Jewish merchant who had emigrated to New York in 1703 from England, becoming a prominent businessman and leader within the early Jewish community. A docent will lead us in exploring the home's 300-year history and that of its varied occupants. After a short bus trip we will have lunch at the Thayer Hotel at West Point, enjoying a hot and cold buffet with many food choices in a beautiful, newly-renovated dining room overlooking the Hudson River. After lunch we will have a one-hour guided tour of various aspects of the Academy. A significant portion of the tour will be conducted on our bus, but participants will be on foot for 30 minutes and should be prepared with comfortable footwear. You will be required to show a government-issued ID upon entering the Academy grounds.

REGISTRATION: Send check for $80.00, payable to NCJW BCS along with your home and cell phone numbers, to Hennie Ostrower, 280 Prospect Ave. – 11N, Hackensack, NJ 07601. If there are openings, non-members will be accommodated at $90.00. Questions: Call Hennie – (201) 342-2996. Bus leaves from Temple Emeth at 8:30 am.

A FEW GOOD COOKS NEEDED!!!

Four times a year NCJW BCS cooks and serves dinner for approximately 100 people at the Bergen County Social Service Center. Some are homeless, others work but still have difficulty managing to survive in Bergen County. The majority are shelter residents. We serve a hot meal consisting of chicken, a pasta dish, rice, veggies, and salad, plus dessert, coffee, iced tea.

We need help cooking/baking. The process is this: You buy what you need, cook and put it into aluminum trays, and bring it to the walk-in center at about 4 pm on the day we are serving dinner. If you can pick up finished trays of food and bring them to the walk-in center, that would also be helpful. Dinner is served from 5:00 to 5:50 pm. A little time for clean-up, and we finish about 6:15. We will let you know the quantities needed. Money you spend will be reimbursed. There is a very well lit parking lot right next to the Center located at 120 River Street in Hackensack (just south of Costco).

The next cooking/serving date is Tuesday, September 30. If you would like to come on the 30th and see what we do, you are welcome. Any questions, feel free to call me at (201) 791-9742 or e-mail at irvingpug@gmail.com.

MEMBERSHIP

HAVE YOU "GIFTED" A MEMBERSHIP THIS YEAR?

Last year National offered the "Gifting" program, and many of you gifted a friend or a relative, for a total of 60 new "Gifted" members! If you have already paid your dues and have not taken advantage of this fabulous offer, you still have the opportunity to give a FREE membership (no cost to you, the member, or to the person you are gifting). Life members can gift a membership for a donation of $36. For more information, call Norma (201) 833-9252 or Tama (201) 342-2477.

YCS – KILBARCHAN

Roxanne Reff and I had never visited YCS Kilbarchan, which is one of the community services supported by Bergen County Section. We went on Thursday, June 19th, and were really impressed with what we saw and heard on a guided tour. Ruthie Harper, Co-Executive Director, joined us.

Under the umbrella of the Youth Consultation Service, Kilbarchan is a residential care facility for adolescents. BCS gives financial support, along with gift cards for our Thrift Shop, where the teens purchase clothing for the high school prom.

Most impressive was the IRTS (Intensive Residential Treatment Service). This unit brought tears to our eyes. This completely separate co-ed unit is part of a psychiatric step-down continuum of care for eight adolescents and children who live in a home-like environment as they recover from emotional, behavioral, and mental health challenges.

It was a wonderful visit.

Nan Matlick, Co-Vice President, Community Services

FROM THE CO-PRESIDENTS

It's hard to believe that another season of NCJW activities is about to begin. As we enter the second year of our presidency, we are excited to be presenting some wonderful programs, trips, study groups, and cultural events for our members. We are excited to be once again offering the "gifted" membership program so both dues and life members can "gift" their friends/relatives with a one-year membership. We're excited with our latest Stay-at-Home personal giving theme – you have to wait for your invitation to learn what it is. Watch for it in the mail right after Yom Kippur.

We're excited to be presenting 5 advocacy issues that we wish we didn't have to address: immigration reform, human trafficking, women's health care/reproductive justice, voters' rights and gun violence prevention. When we read the articles, the emails, the editorials and hear the justification from many of the lobbyists who write and speak against women, children and families, we know that we must continue the fight and be vigilant in safeguarding our progressive ideals. We hope you'll join us.

You can get involved in a myriad of ways. Just call or email us!

- If you have a computer, join the NCJW Action Line. Google www.ncjw.org. Click on STAND UP AND SPEAK OUT WITH THE NCJW ACTION CENTER (right side of the screen). Click on SIGN UP WITH THE NCJW ACTION CENTER and follow directions.
- Volunteer at one of our community services either once a week, once a month or as your schedule permits.

- Participate in one or more of our advocacy issues.
- Help with a mailing. It's a fun and social few hours.
- Join a fundraising committee. It's our organization's lifeblood.
- Pay your dues (unless you're a life member).
- Sign up for the Membership Luncheon and the trip in October, and for Game Day in November. If you don't want to play a game, just come for lunch. That's what we plan to do so come and sit with us!
- Check out our Facebook page at www.facebook.com/ncjwbcs and our website at www.ncjwbcs.org.
- Send NCJW Tribute cards.
- Contribute generously to our Stay-at-Home campaign.
- Volunteer at our Thrift Shop. And bring us your gently-used clothing, jewelry and furs.

We look forward to greeting you at the September opening meeting, on Tuesday, September 16. It promises to be very interesting. To you and your loved ones, as we approach the year 5775, our best wishes for a year of peace, health and happiness. L'shanah tovah.

VOTING RIGHTS CALL – H.R. 3899 THE VOTING RIGHTS AMENDMENT ACT OF 2014

Julie Fernandez, a senior policy analyst, spoke at the Washington office of National Council of Jewish Women concerning the Amendment Act of 2014 and what it proposes:

- (1) States need a layer of oversight and observation in their requirements.
- (2) The new bill expands the ability of federal courts to look into intentional discriminatory practices.
- (3) It restores noted requirements for states practicing discrimination.
- (4) The bill makes it easier for plaintiffs to issue or declare an injunction.
- (5) It allows educated observation and oversight of the impositions imposed by each state.

What can you do? As an individual, write letters to the editors of your newspapers. Write letters to your representatives in Congress. Keep yourself informed of what's happening, not only in New Jersey but in other states as well.

Don't forget we have an important election coming up in November. Please keep yourself educated on the issues that are important, such as gun violence prevention, domestic violence, improved immigration laws, human trafficking, and healthcare, to name a few.

- October 28: the last day to apply for an absentee ballot
- November 3 at 3:00 P.M.: the deadline to vote by mail-in ballot at the Bergen County Board of Elections, Room 310, One Bergen County Plaza, Hackensack, N.J. You may also pick up forms at this address.

NCJW BCS SCHOLARSHIP WINNERS

Each year NCJW BCS presents several endowed $1000 scholarships to young Jewish women who are graduating from a Bergen County public high school and who have been accepted to a four-year college or university. Among the additional criteria considered are high academic achievement, significant involvement in school and community activities, and financial need.

This year our scholarship committee consisted of the following dedicated members: Grace Fuld, Anita Greenberg, Peggy Kabakow, Nan Matlick, Liz Wars, and Evalyn Brownstein (Chair). The committee received 16 applications and interviewed 8 potential awardees. The selection process was very difficult, as there were many outstanding candidates.

We are pleased to announce the following awards:

The Bach Scholarship winner is Emily Gore of the Bergen County Academies who will attend an 8-year medical program at the University of Rochester.

The Marjorie G. Aerenson Memorial Scholarship winners are Anna Ginzburg of Tenafly High School, who will attend Vassar College, and Jessalyn Gerber of the Bergen County Academies, who will attend The College of New Jersey.

The winners of the Zimmerman Family Scholarship are Bryce Berman of Indian Hills High School, who will attend Tulane University, and Alexa Hirschberg of Pascack Hills High School, who will attend Emory University.

The awards were presented at a recent NCJW BCS Board meeting with sincere best wishes from our members.

COMMUNITY SERVICES

NCJW BCS CONGRATULATES HIPPY GRADUATES

HIPPY (Home Instruction for Parents of Pre-School Youngsters) graduated 26 excited five-year-olds before their proud parents and home instructors as delighted National Council of Jewish Women Bergen County Section volunteers cheered and applauded.

The boys and girls, dressed in blue caps and gowns, marched in to the traditional strains of Pomp and Circumstance while audience members enthusiastically snapped pictures.

After reciting the Pledge of Allegiance and sharing some of their achievements with the assembled group, the children received "diplomas" which attest to their three years of dedicated work in preparation for entrance into kindergarten.

NCJW BCS volunteers were presented with certificates of appreciation in recognition of efforts in organizing monthly workshops for HIPPY youngsters.

HIPPY's mission is to empower parents with the skills and confidence necessary to be their child's first teacher.

This fall Bergen Family Center will honor NCJW BCS for its 20-year partnership and support of the HIPPY program.

Beautiful hand-crafted jewelry and gifts made by another of our community services, the Adler Aphasia Center in Maywood, are displayed and sold.

We also help out at 3 parties each year: Hanukkah, Valentine's Day and Coney Island Day (the end of May).

We bring cheer to residents, and our presence is much appreciated. It is a fun and relaxing place to be, so please share a few hours of your time and volunteer. You can pick whichever Wednesday is best for you. Please call Roberta Lew at (201) 836-4695 or e-mail to RMLew@aol.com.

HOBBY LOBBY: WOMEN'S HEALTH AND REPRODUCTIVE JUSTICE

Many of our members have been dismayed and alarmed by some of the recent Supreme Court rulings. The Hobby Lobby ruling denies women employees insurance coverage for birth control by employers with religious objections. According to this decision by the court, corporations now have religious rights that surpass those of women and can now impose their religious beliefs on their employees.

The Hobby Lobby ruling is based not on the Constitution, but on the Religious Freedom Restoration Act. Therefore, we must encourage our representatives to repeal this act, which was misguidedly enacted by Congress in 1993. RFRA redefines religious freedom by exempting religious organizations from laws they claim create substantial burdens on their free exercise of religion.

Our generation fought long and hard for the right of women to have control over their bodies and to make their own decisions about their future. We thought we had succeeded, but now it seems the battle is far from over. Our rights are slowly being chipped away and are in jeopardy. We must fight back!

Write, call, or email your views to your Representatives and Senators. Let them know how you feel. Sign up for action alerts at the NCJW website so that you will become aware of the latest developments and can lobby for specific legislation with a click of your finger. Read the advocacy emails from NCJW BCS and take action. And of course, vote! Let's try to make a difference.

If you are unsure of the names of your representatives, go to www.contactingthecongress.org and fill in your address. Many of the legislators' web sites ask you to add your four-digit zip code extension. If you do not know it, go to www.usps.com. Click on "quick tools" at the top of the page and then click on "look up zip code." Having your voice heard is worth the effort.
