

A Patchwork Life

with 'Renaissance Woman'
Eugenia Zukerman

TUESDAY, MAY 19, 2015

12:30 PM at Temple Emeth, 1666 Windsor Road, Teaneck, NJ, 07666

National Council of Jewish Women Bergen County Section is delighted to welcome internationally renowned flutist Eugenia Zukerman as the Guest Speaker for our May General Meeting.

In her words: "I think I'd like to call the talk A Patchwork Life so I can talk about all the various things I've been fortunate to be able to do.

I will bring my flute, and play a few pieces for solo flute."

A true 'Renaissance woman', Miss Zukerman maintains an international concert calendar, while pursuing a multi-faceted career that includes distinguished work as an arts administrator, author, educator, internet entrepreneur, and journalist.

Entrance fee for members is $10.00, payable at the door.

Non-members will be charged $20.00, of which $10.00 can be applied to membership dues, if paid that day.

Light refreshments will be served before the meeting.

Members, family, friends and general public are all welcome.
