A Tour Bus Goes to

On Thursday, November 3 we will travel to Brooklyn which, according to Wikipedia, would rank as the third most populous city in the U.S. (behind Los Angeles and Chicago) if each of the five boroughs were a separate city.

Tour Guide Art Zuckerman will treat us to his creative itinerary, filled with history and anecdotes. We will tour Brooklyn Heights, DUMBO, Park Slope, Crown Heights, Prospect Park and Park Slope among other areas.

There will be stops at BLDG 92 Museum at the Brooklyn Navy Yard and at the Pratt Institute sculpture garden. We will lunch at the famous Junior's, known for its cheesecake, where you will have a choice of items listed below.

The bus leaves Temple Emeth at 8:30 a.m., returning by 6 p.m.

Registration is by mail only and will be confirmed by email.

Make check payable to NCJW BCS and mail to

Ina Fine, 160 Overlook Avenue, #18E, Hackensack, NJ 07601.
