

TIMELY TOPICS & TASTY TREATS

IN TWO PARTS

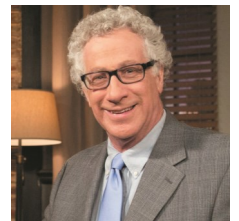

PART 1 - Wednesday May 1 at 2:00 pm
Temple Emeth, 1666 Windsor Road, Teaneck

Come and enjoy a free screening of the wonderful movie
"A BORROWED IDENTITY"

Set in Israel, this fictional story features a Palestinian Israeli boy given the chance to go to a prestigious boarding school in Jerusalem. Will he have to sacrifice his own identity in order to be accepted? This film has been called "a poignant, humorous coming-of-age tale" by the Washington Post. It was recommended by film critic Dr. Eric Goldman, who will be the speaker about this film at the Timely Topics & Tasty Treats on Tuesday, May 7. There is no charge to attend this wonderful film.

For further information, contact Marilyn Friedmann at 201-568-0145 or marisfried@aol.com.

PART 2 - Tuesday, May 7 at 1:30 pm
Senior Source (second floor)
Riverside Square Mall, Hackensack

LENS ON ISRAEL: A SOCIETY THROUGH ITS CINEMA

Dr. Eric Goldman, Adjunct Professor of Cinema at Yeshiva University, will illustrate how Israeli movies provide an intimate insight into Israel's birth, growth and development as a country. The charge for Timely Topics is $5 for members and $10 for non-members.

Please note the start time of 1:30 pm for this event only.

For further information, contact Carole Benson, cbenson@ncjwbcs.org.

Driving directions to parking for Senior Source: From Maggiano's, turn right by PF Chang's. Follow signs for Upper Level Parking and drive towards 'Elevator' sign on 2nd level. Entrance to mall is BEHIND Elevator sign. Senior Source is 1st store on right.