NCJW WILL PACK 1,500 "SNACK PACKS" FOR LOCAL ELEMENTARY SCHOOLS Volunteers Welcome

The National Council of Jewish Women Bergen County Section (NCJW BCS) is making the weekends happier for some local children! At its next general meeting, members and volunteers will pack child-friendly, healthy goody bags, which will be donated to the Center for Food Action for distribution to young school children on Friday afternoons, to provide nutrition on weekends. This year, once again, NCJW members and friends will pack 1,500 goody bags. The meeting will take place at Temple Emeth, 1666 Windsor Road, Teaneck, on Tuesday, January 21, 2020 at 12:30 pm.

Snack packs are one of the Center for Food Action's answers to child hunger. The packs contain individual servings of fruit, cereal and other wholesome, appealing foods. The NCJW BCS is encouraging members and guests to volunteer in this important project. All hands are welcome, so bring your neighbors, friends and family to help! What a great way to chase away those winter blues! There is no charge.

NCJW BCS provides educational and stimulating programs and speakers throughout the year, including six general meetings and a myriad of speakers, book groups and trips. For more information on this meeting, or on NCJW BCS and its upcoming programs, please contact office@ncjwbcs.org, call 201-385-4847 or visit www.ncjwbcs.org.

The National Council of Jewish Women (NCJW) is a grassroots organization of volunteers and advocates who turn progressive ideals into action. Inspired by Jewish values, NCJW strives for social justice by improving the quality of life for women, children, and families and by safeguarding individual rights and freedoms.
