‘PASSAGE TO ALL THINGS POSSIBLE’
NCJW PRESENTS ‘LUNCH AND LEARN’ ABOUT ELLIS ISLAND IMMIGRANTS

TEANECK – National Council of Jewish Women Bergen County Section promises an entertaining and informative afternoon at its annual ‘Lunch and Learn’ on Tuesday, March 3, 2020 at 12 pm. The event will take place at Temple Emeth, 1666 Windsor Road, Teaneck.

Veteran stage actor Mark Simons will give a moving one-man presentation of three immigrants and their journey to America. They must pass through the all-important, frustrating and sometimes frightening portal known as Ellis Island. Told in the words of the immigrants themselves, ‘Passage to All Things Possible’ is a harrowing, humorous and heart-warming presentation that will stimulate conversation. A delicious lunch will be served.

“Mark Simons gives his audience insight into what it was like to be an immigrant arriving at Ellis Island,” said Bari-Lynne Schwartz, Co-President of NCJW. “With immigration so much in the forefront of today’s news, it will be interesting to look back on the experiences of the immigrants of the past.”

The cost is $20 for members and $25 for non-members, including lunch. To register, please send lunch reservation check to: NCJW BCS, 75 South Washington Avenue, Bergenfield, NJ 07621 by February 21.

NCJW BCS provides educational and stimulating programs and speakers throughout the year, including six general meetings and a myriad of speakers, book groups, trips and advocacy opportunities.
