NCJW BCS OFFERS COLLEGE SCHOLARSHIPS

Are you planning to begin college this fall?

National Council of Jewish Women Bergen County Section (NCJW BCS) will be awarding several endowed scholarships to young Jewish women who are graduating from Bergen County public high schools and are planning to attend a four-year college or university in September. Among the criteria which may be considered are academic achievement, significant involvement in school and/or community activities and financial need. This is a longstanding NCJW BCS program which recognizes outstanding graduates and helps with the increasing cost of higher education.

Information and applications are available through your high school guidance office as well as our website at www.ncjwbc.org. Applications must be received by April 15th which will allow time for considering submissions and scheduling interviews for semi-finalists. For further information, please contact our office at office@ncjwbc.org.

NCJW BCS is a grassroots organization of volunteers and advocates who turn progressive ideals into action. Inspired by Jewish values, NCJW strives for social justice by improving the quality of life for women, children, and families and by safeguarding individual rights and freedoms.
