Attention: Guidance Department

National Council of Jewish Women Bergen County Section will award several $1,000 scholarships to Jewish women selected from applicants who are seniors in Bergen County public high schools.

We are requesting your help in identifying two candidates from your school. In addition to being of Jewish faith, other criteria that may be considered are:

1. Has high academic standing
2. Is active in school activities
3. Is involved in community service
4. Has been accepted to attend a four year college or university
5. May have need for financial assistance

Please email copies of the enclosed application and this letter to qualified students who wish to apply. Applications should be received by May 15, 2020 to allow time for review and interviews by our Scholarship Committee. If a student from your school is awarded a scholarship, she will inform you as soon as possible.

Applications should be emailed to office@ncjwbc.org

We would appreciate it if you would also announce this opportunity on the school website.

You may log on to our Website www.ncjwbc.org to learn more about our organization.

Thank you for your assistance. We look forward to hearing from you.

Very truly yours,

Evalyn Brownstein
