JOHN MOSES SPEAKS ABOUT JEWS ON BROADWAY

Mr. Moses, a five-time Grammy winner, is a New York City based clarinetist who has played with the American Composers Orchestra, the New York Pops and the Westchester Philharmonic. He has held a soloist or orchestral role in over 200 films and countless Broadway productions. His latest gig has been with the Broadway production of "Wicked" -- for 17 years. He has appeared on many TV shows. He is a doctoral graduate of the Juilliard School and has taught at many prestigious music schools. He will share with us his experience on the influence of Jews on Broadway.
