ZOOM INTO SUMMER — STOP TEACHING HATE!

Dr. Joan Lurie Goldberg is the co-founder and current co-chair of UNRWA: Stop Teaching Hate. The United Nations Relief and Works Agency (UNRWA) schools have been inciting three generations of young Palestinians, their parents and teachers to hate and kill Jews. Her topic will define the goals of UNRWA: Stop Teaching Hate, which include reformed textbooks and teachers committed to tolerance and peace.

ZOOM INTO FALL—THE EVOLUTION OF TRENDS IN A WARP-TIME AGE

Ira Mayer, author, journalist and consultant, has been tracking consumer research for more than 30 years. Discover how a pandemic, a revitalized social justice movement, and other news-of-the-day are accelerating the long-term demographic and consumer trends that shape our culture.

Tuesday, September 15, 2020, 12:30 pm

September General Meeting, NCJW Annual Advocacy Forum on Zoom YOUR VOTE, YOUR VOICE, YOUR POWER

Victoria Bassetti is a fellow of the Brennan Center for Justice at NYU School of Law. She is the author of Electoral Dysfunction: A Survival Manual for American Voters, the companion book to a PBS documentary by the same name. Ms. Bassetti will give us insights into the issues, paradoxes and conflicts that inform our democracy and our voting.

Zoom in to our annual Fall Membership Event HATS OFF TO US!

This promises to be a fun interactive experience. There will be a hat fashion show and you'll be the designers and the models. Mel Nusbaum will be entertaining us with some great jazz. More information to follow.

Stay tuned for our new AT HOME series of Zoom workshops.

HELP WANTED: SUMMER 2020 DONATIONS

The agencies below are in dire need of specific items as a result of COVID-19. While we cannot volunteer at this time, we can try to help where we can. This list will be updated as needed. THANK YOU in advance for your help and support.

WOMEN'S RIGHTS INFORMATION CENTER: WRIC requests laptops (compatible with Microsoft) for students taking their Microsoft Office Class. Due to the pandemic, the training is conducted online and classroom computers are not available. Apple laptops and any brand of tablets will also find a good home with other WRIC clients. To donate contact Jan Sprance at jsprance@womensrights.org.

Jersey Women Strong, Women for Progress, and NCJW BCS have joined WRIC to help collect new and unopened soap, sanitary napkins, tampons, deodorant, razors and other essential non-food items that women and families need. For women working at low-income jobs, these are costly "luxuries." For those on public assistance, these items are not covered by food stamps. For more information and how you can help, email Lisa Maurer at lmaurer@womensrights.org or call 201-568-1166. Donation drop-offs accepted on Wednesday afternoons from 1:00-4:30. Mail order deliveries accepted Monday through Thursday at 108 West Palisade Avenue, Englewood, NJ 07631. If unable to drop products off, contact Sue Kanrich at 201-926-6070 or at sakanrich@yahoo.com.

YCS/ HOLLEY CENTER: Toys and games are needed for the summer months: basketballs, UNO and playing cards, bubbles, Frisbees, Nerf balls, board games, sidewalk chalk, water balloons, large bouncing balls, kinetic sand, large building blocks, basic Legos, other arts and crafts; also needed are Fun snacks such as microwave popcorn, Fruit by the Foot, freeze pops, tubs of Twizzlers, fun-sized Starbursts or Skittles, individual boxes of Animal Crackers or Chips Ahoy. Please deliver to YCS offices at 25 East Salem Street, Hackensack: When you arrive, call 201-678-1312 and someone will come to your car and pick up whatever you bring.

BERGEN VOLUNTEER MEDICAL INITIATIVE: BVMI is having a food drive to collect healthy, non-perishable foods, which they'll be distributing on Saturdays. Contact Gladys Laden for information regarding drop-off locations at gladys.laden@gmail.com or at 201-836-3846.

CENTER FOR HOPE AND SAFETY needs non-perishable foods, toiletries, gift cards and cleaning supplies. Underwriting meals from restaurants that deliver to their clients housed in motels would be greatly appreciated. Check their website www.hopeandsafety.org. Contact Flora Perskie at fwperskie@gmail.com or 201-585-0464, or Henrietta Wolfeiler at b.wolfeiler3@verizon.net or 201-996-0932.

KNITWITS: If you enjoy knitting or crocheting hats, scarves, gloves, mittens, afghans, blankets or more, or if you have yarn to donate, contact Sabina Sicklick at 201-342-3671 or at sabinasicklick@yahoo.com. NCJW BCS will distribute these hand-made items in the fall and winter to the children at Holley Center, residents at the Center for Hope and Safety, the Jewish Home at Rockleigh, Hackensack homeless shelter, and anyone who needs them.

CENTER FOR FOOD ACTION: CFA is providing clients gift cards to restaurants and super markets. If you would like to participate in this effort, please contact CFA at www.cfanj.org/giveameal or Marcia Levy at 201-894-8379 or at mllevy0648@gmail.com.

BERGEN FAMILY CENTER: FOR FAMILIES: Laundry detergent, dish and bar soap, sponges, paper towels, multi-purpose surface wipes, toothpaste/tooth brushes, toilet paper, diapers (Infants-Size 4), baby wipes. FOR SENIORS: Poligrip or Fixodent denture adhesive, unisex deodorant (non-aerosol), tissues, mouthwash, body wash, non-slip socks, body and hand lotion, baking soda, hand sanitizer, shaving cream, Amazon Echo Show Display, adult coloring books, cookie and cake baking ingredients and supplies. Contact Everlin Kim 201-568-0817 x 126. Drop off at BFC, 44 Armory Street, Englewood, 07631; mail deliveries accepted.
